

CNS Announces Selection of New and Reappointed Advisory Board Members

Miami, FL – December 3, 2018 – Cargo Network Services Corporation (CNS), a subsidiary of the International Air Transport Association (IATA) today announced the selection of senior leaders to fill four of its openings on its advisory board.

Michael White, President of CNS commented, "This is one of the most unique group of air cargo industry leaders in the world and I am pleased that we have the opportunity to work with such dedicated individuals for the sustainability and the betterment of our industry." The new and reappointed members of the advisory board include:

- Nicolas Saignat, Vice President USA, Air France/KLM/Martinair Cargo
- Fred Ruggiero, Vice President, the Americas, Cathay Pacific Airways, Ltd.
- Bernhard Kindelbacher, Vice President USA & Canada, Lufthansa Cargo AG
- Laura Sanders, Vice President, Carrier Relations & Customer Experience, Lynden International

Continuing member of the advisory board include:

- Tim Strauss, Vice President, Cargo, Air Canada
- Brandon Fried, Executive Director, Airforwarders Association
- Greg Weigel, Vice President, Global Operations, AIT Worldwide Logistics
- Rick Elieson, President, Cargo, American Airlines
- Joe Napoli, Deputy City Manager, City of Miami
- Jose Ubeda, Senior Vice President, Global Air, Expeditors' International
- Roberto Schiavone, Senior Vice President, Head of Airfreight/Americas Region, Panalpina
- Jan Krems, President United Cargo, United Airlines
- Michael Duffy, Chief Executive Officer, The Americas, Worldwide Flight Services

Cargo Network Services (CNS) is dedicated to the entire air logistics chain and provides a unique set of business solutions that meet the requirements of the air cargo industry in the US. The mission of CNS is to represent, lead and serve the US air cargo industry.

